LAST EVENING'S ADDRESSES.

Opera House Was Well Filled With Christian Endeavorers.

A meeting full of meat was that of last evening at the Barre opera house, and an audience that nearly filled the body of the house attended. Everyone was pleased with the addresses of the evening and went away satisfied with having received real benefit from them.

The opera house was transformed for the time into a large church, with pulpit and choir. The decorations of the church were simple but effective. Three American flags relieved the staidness, and a beautiful piece of work, a cross in green and white with an electric light for a center, was suspended from above, while beneath that was a banner with the words Vermont C. E. Union in green and white.

President C. E. Osgood presided and the music was under the direction of George Inglis of this city, a chorus choir singing very acceptably.

Rev. A. J. Eastman of East Barre was called upon to read from the Scripture and also to offer prayer, after which W. H. Moody of Northfield, Mass., known for being the son of the famous evangelist and for his own attractiveness as a speaker. Mr. Moody was listened to with closest attention. He has a way of putting himself into his work and of being thoroughly sincere so that his audience was with him from the start. He urged his hearers to forget self, to work unselfishly for the Master. "Every thing that we do should be done for his honor and glory. Seek to do things that shall be well pleasing to Him."

Go not where He cannot go with you. If we return to our work with Christlike zeal our influence will be felt. Let us go back to our work with such zeal that we shall not think of ourselves, shall not consider ourselves. We as Christians have been too indifferent, too self-centered. God grant that we may have more of that Christlike zeal.

A ladies' quartette rendered a selection very sweetly, and then Rev. James Alexander of Newport, N. H., state president of the New Hampshire Christian Endeavor Union, was introduced. Rev. Mr. Alexander was given a very flattering introduction by the chairman who said that "we are particularly fortunate in getting the best Christian Endeavorer from the Granite State to come to the Granite city." The speaker announced that he wished to speak on some things he had seen in going in and out among our young people. (1) The largeness of possibilities among young people. Of 23,000,000 young people in this country only about 8,000,000 were receiving religious training. To obviate this difficulty there is more need of more home religious teaching. He drew a picture of an average home in which the father comes home tired both in brain and body he sought diversion outside his household. (2) How shall we find these young people? There must be a bit of common sense in the person who seeks them, also a bit of tact, a gentleness of manner, transparency of a good life. We must work personally. There is, too, a necessity of a deep personal acquaintance with Jesus in our young people, and this can be done (1) through the testimony of others (2) through personal investigation (3) through experience.

TO-DAY'S SESSION.

Number of Delegates Largely Increased.

The opening session this forenoon was largely attended, the Baptist church being well filled. Many names were added to the registration of delegates. There are now about 130 names on the register, and it is probable that there are others in the city who have not registered.

Rev. F. A. Poole of the Barre Congregational church, led a "quiet hour" which was particularly remembering the juniors.

Following this Miss Helen Graves, the state secretary, spoke on "Echoes from Denver," which was a report of the National Christian Endeavor convention recently held in Denver, Colorado. Miss Graves was state delegate from Vermont, and the report which she gave this forenoon was very interesting. Miss Graves also read the report of local unions and societies in place of D. S. Carpenter of Middleton Springs who was unable to be present. A large number of reports were received, and almost all showed their societies to be in good condition.

After the singing of a hymn W. D. Hayes of Bellows Falls gave an interesting account of "The Correspondence School for Christian Workers." The school is along the same lines as the correspondence schools for the various professions and businesses, and was started about six months ago by Dr. F. E. Clark, who has prepared a manual on Christian Endeavor work. Mrs. Clark has prepared a manual somewhat similar for Junior work.

There were two short addresses this forenoon, one by Rev. Harry J. Kilburn of Bradford on "The Object of It All," and the other by Rev. R. A. Nichols of Worcester on "How can we make the Bible our own." In the absence of Rev. E. M. Fuller of Burlington, who was to have spoken on "New Campaign for Christian Endeavor," Rev. James Alexander of Newport, N. H., who spoke so acceptably at the opera house last evening, conducted an open parliament, after which President Osgood announced his committees as follows:

Credentials, Rev. W. A. Kinzie, Barre. Finance, C. W. Perry, Barre. Nominations, Rev. Mr. Cummings, Danville, Miss Perry, Barre, Rev. H. J. Kilburn, Bradford. Resolutions, Rev. F. B. Kellogg, Waterbury, Rev. Mr. Eldridge, Melndoes, Miss Grace Young, Fair Haven.

Excursion to Granite Quarries.

This afternoon the delegates suspended their session to take a pleasure trip going by special train to view the granite quarries. A train of three cars carrying 150 delegates left the local Montpelier station at one o'clock to take the trip. They will return to this city this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and the sessions will be resumed at the Congregational church at 4 o'clock.

A VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY.

Brattleboro Man Acquitted of a Charge of Selling Liquor to a Minor.

Brattleboro, Oct. 6.—The jury in the case of state against Edward G. Frost, one of the members of the Valley Bottling Co., charged with selling liquor to a minor, last night returned a verdict of not guilty and Mr. Frost was discharged. The verdict last night was entirely at variance with the decision of the board of commissioners last week, which was that Mr. Frost had violated his license, the license being revoked for that reason. Mr. Frost admitted that he sold the liquor in question, but said he supposed the young man was 21.

The next in the series of prosecutions for violating the license law will be held Friday when Frank Turner, proprietor of the American house, will be arraigned before Justice Merrifield on the charge of selling liquor to Clinton Pratt, who has testified that he sold Turner beer was 21. Pratt is 16 years old.

ANOTHER MAD-MAN
AT THE WHITE HOUSE

John Decker Was Unarmed But Was Turned Over to the Police.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Another crank tried to get at the president this morning. About ten o'clock a stranger was observed by one of the officers on duty at the White House wandering about in the north lobby. He had sneaked in from the front door without being noticed. He gave the name of John Decker and said he belonged in Norwich, Conn., and wanted to see the president.

The officers turned him over to the police. He was not armed and made no hostile demonstration. From his general behavior the officers were convinced he is mentally unbalanced. Under orders from the White House the police authorities decline to let any one see or talk with him. It is stated that he had some papers relating to a money claim he wanted to show to the president.

THEY WON THIRD TIME

Pittsburg Nationals Play Good Ball.

THE SCORE WAS 5 TO 4

Phillippe Took His Third Game From the Boston Americans Yesterday.

Pittsburg, Oct. 6.—The first game on the home grounds of the world's championship series between Pittsburg and Boston was played today resulting in a victory for the local team, 5 to 4.

Phillippe again pitched for Pittsburg and again was his great work mainly responsible for the downfall of the American champions. For Boston Dineen was hit rather hard at times. Boston did not score until the fifth when singles gave them one run. In the ninth a series of hits netted them three runs.

The series now stands three to one in favor of Pittsburg.

Score by innings:

Boston 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 3 4

SPAULDING SCHOOL
DEFEATED YESTERDAY

Edmunds High School Ran Up a Score of 39 to 0 at Burlington.

The Spaulding high school foot ball eleven played its first game of the season at Burlington yesterday afternoon, being defeated quite easily by the Edmunds high school by a score of 39 to 0. The Barre team was much out weighed by its opponents, man for man, which, added to the larger experience of the Burlington team, was a great handicap. Spaulding fought well and need not be discouraged over the result of the first game.

Edmunds kicked off to Spaulding who, after losing 20 yards, lost the ball on downs. After five rushes the ball was carried over the line for the first touchdown. Edmunds failed to kick goal. Again Spaulding received the ball and fumbled behind the goal line, giving another touchdown to Edmunds as well as a goal. Edmunds kicked off, gained the ball on downs, rushed it 10 yards and after three downs scored the third touchdown. Thomas kicked a goal and another kick off Edmunds gained the ball on a fumble, added 10 yards and lost it by the same means. Spaulding was held for downs and Thomas soon made a touchdown and goal. An off side kick was made but Spaulding having been allowed 20 yards could make no gains and in attempting to punt fumbled. Thomas got the ball and 20 yards were made. Edmunds was held for downs when time was called. Score, 23 to 0 in favor of Edmunds.

The second half began with Edmunds' kick off. Spaulding losing the ball on downs, Perkins made a long end run but gained little. Pinsky then made a 10-yard run and a touchdown for Edmunds. Another goal. After a kick off Spaulding lost the ball on downs and Edmunds carried it 20 yards but fumbled. Spaulding was pushed back and the ball regained, Edmunds making a sixth touchdown. Spaulding taking a turn at kick off Perkins carried the ball 25 yards and Pinsky ran half the length of the field, adding another touchdown. No goal was kicked, Edmunds kicked off and Spaulding gained 49 yards on off sides but lost the ball on downs as time was called with the score 39 to 0. Edmunds had an extremely easy victory owing to the light weight and poor equipment of Spaulding, but the game does not reflect upon their playing.

The line-up follows:

LIFTED THE MORTGAGE
PAID THE INSURANCE

Kindly Act Done For the Family of the Late Peter Vorrone of East Montpelier.

The news of a most kindly act has just come out but not through the agency of the men who did it. The mortgage on the little farm of the widow of Peter Vorrone who was shot and killed at East Montpelier recently has been lifted and the insurance on the house has been paid until 1908. The amount was contributed by 125 men who with one exception, Barclay Bros., are employees of that firm and the Granite street Power Co.

The late Mr. Vorrone was employed at Barclay Bros. shed. The movement to assist his family was started by W. A. Clark, boss politician at Barclay's, while Charles A. Clark assisted in the collection of the subscriptions. After the money was all subscribed Mrs. Vorrone was acquainted with the fact, and Sunday W. A. Clark presented the mortgage and the insurance papers to her. Mrs. Vorrone received the gift in the same spirit in which it was sent, and expressed her heartfelt gratitude for the expression of kindness.

McKenna performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left on the morning train for Roxbury for a week's stay at the home of the groom's parents.

WAS SURELY HELD UP.

Fred Haskett Says It Was No Hoax, Either.

Fred Haskett says he was the man who was held up on Granite street Monday evening and that he was the man who telephoned the police. He declared emphatically today that the affair was not a hoax. He tells the story as follows:

"I was going down Granite street toward the bridge and had got about in front of the Socialist building and about six feet from a post when a fellow came running out. He pointed a gun at me, I didn't know what kind of a gun because I didn't take the pains to look."

"I held up my hands and yelled 'Hold on there! guess I'm not the man you are looking for.'"

"When I said that the fellow did not lower his gun so I turned and walked back. After awhile another fellow passed me on the run. I asked him what that fellow was pointing a gun at me for. He said he didn't know."

Then I went to Chesser & Bird's meat market and called up the police station to complain." Mr. Haskett says that he has no particular reason for not giving the police his name.

CHILD FELT TO THE AL

Dallas Clark Searly Injured.

IS STILL UNCONSCIOUS.

Was Playing on Second Story Rail and Lost His Balance, Landing on Concrete.

Dallas Clark, the five-year-old son of Charles A. Clark of Forsyth Place, met with a most serious injury last evening by falling from a second story piazza at his home to a concrete sidewalk sixteen feet below and striking on his head.

The accident happened at about half past six o'clock. The little fellow was playing on the piazza and had climbed the railing. His father who was sitting inside the house warned the boy to get down from the railing, and the next instant he was horrified to see the boy lose his balance and fall headlong to the sidewalk below.

The injured boy was picked up unconscious and carried into the house, and Drs. E. W. H. Joy and E. B. White were called. After an examination physicians decided that he had sustained a fracture of the skull and had received concussion of the brain. He remained unconscious through the night.

Twenty-nine of that number have been initiated and they expect to initiate the remaining 13 at the next regular meeting to be held Oct. 19, and before 1903 goes out of date they expect to be 600 strong.

On April 2, 1902, he was in Barre city court on the charge of breach of peace in quarrelling with A. Bardoli. The row occurred on April 1st. Garretto was fined $5 and costs of $7.29, which was paid. It is claimed this was the result of a row Garretto had with a fellow socialist at a socialist meeting on that date.

WHY HE THREW LANTERN.

Samuel Novelli Says Garretto Called Him a Big Liar.

Editor Times: As I read in the Times that I threw the lantern at Garretto when he was taken to be identified by E. Corti, I wish to let everybody know that when E. Corti was asked if Garretto was the man that shot at him, he said: "Yes, he is the man that shot me." Garretto answered, "you make a mistake." Corti added, "I am sure."

Then I called Garretto assassin and when I heard him call me a big liar I threw at him the lantern. That's all. Sam Novelli.

TALKED WITH SERRATI.

Editor Times: As I read in yesterday's paper that Mr. Serrati did not have any right or chances to talk with anybody while in prison, I wish to state for the truth that Monday, at about 7.30 in the evening being myself in the corridors of the Barre jail, I saw Mr. Pochetti talking to Serrati in his cell. So for the truth. Cornelius Trentini.
